1. The new thing I am doing must be taught in every school, every school, every school where I am the center of all things and all things revolve around me. See what I have said/am saying and alter not my command, request, to be at the center of what I am doing now today in the earth and beyond, and allowing, asking, inviting my all to be all in all with all in all.

2. See, please the value of and copulate not with mammon in subjugation to its rules/requirements but see the kingdom royal and the royalty that you are, in surrender, operating in/as that royalty, before time, after time, and time having little/no effect on your whereabouts. See what I have said. Is this not new? No, but new to most, and if not taught in my schools that teach me, then where is it/me? And what is at the center of what is being taught if it's not me and the new things I am doing with a man, a woman, and each encompassing the/each other, in me?

3. I love you. Schools emerge from/through schools, schools coming forth from my hand, my heart, my value/delivery systems. I love you.

4. Schools arise wherever you are/go and who are you, school-keeper? School-master? School regarder? Nay, school revealer in my heart-stealers not, but yea those who have my heart and now start schools and link arms to be my arm and my relationships/values establish in the far and near, hear and now. See what I have said/am saying and requesting and inviting and creating with the word of my/your mouth. I have declared it saith the Lord of host. I believe in you. Thank you. Amen.

5. My schools arise with the burdened down not, but with those leadership'd who have arisen with my healing in their wings. I love you. Not in paradigms/models of the past that powerless are/were and still are, devastating the crops/pure grapes of new wine, but newness of life in the new that I am doing/bringing forth and I love you, I love you, I love you.

6. Think it not strange the new things I am doing in you, through you, through the newly discovered that I now bring into your life/lives. I love you. The new people, the new technology, the newly emerging leaders that have me/you at their center. Edit not. I love you.

7. These now take/accept/walk to the forefront of the center stage of the world for not in their own might and power, but priests unto me in the order of Melchizedek. See. Are, and leading in the new things/schools I am doing/bringing forth, through them. I love you all.

8. Global citizens are, twin citizenships have, yea, infinite'd citizenships have, altering not their state but operating in the fullness of mine, yea throughout the heavenlies and beyond-thought. I love you all.

9. This/these are just the beginning of your new lectures/talks on what I am/have given you that you are to take to London and beyond. I love you. Into Asia minor and major and throughout the/that entire region; regionless has it been with the newness of what I am doing/procuring/bringing forth in commerce not, in church staid forms not, but in the leaderless who know only mine. See. Watch me. I love you all.

10. House churches and forms of government change dramatically. Watch me. Forms of worship of who what when change drastically. Watch me. Watch me revitalize the worthless downtrodden with the water of my living word that now starts schools to river my life through them to many others who will now start schools and river the life out of them not depleting them, but yea offering them delivery systems of only me/my hand/heart/father. See. See how it/my body changes. All things are made new. Cataclysmic to all and those who seek comfort will be mildly destroyed, and those who seek truth and my hand/heart and to know me for my fullness/who I really am, will be shocked not, only, but yea coming into maturity that knows no bounds and transcends all the authority structures of dust-man and governments-restricting-me. I love you.

11. See all things come into my hands.

12. See the educated shake and the lowly tremble at my word that now flows through their mouth and pen and through their river that they've let come forth from me, pure me, purely me, pure clean clear crystal living truth. I love you/them all.

13. See the linkages now between seasons, cultures, time zones, diversity personified that live/walk/speak/write/publish in purity and who can know my standards in this area? Ask penman simple. Purity established, purity demanded; no shortcuts.

14. I love you each one as you now struggle not with the new things I am doing but open to it/me and sharing me with mine more and more in schools formidable that have/are my power of/in one. I love you each one. Hesitate not/hesitant not be, lift up your eyes for where I am there you may be also, are already, if surrendered into the new things I am doing.

15. And I am not afar off/away. I am in you. I am you. You are in me. And we are one. And the schools of one come forth in might and power and the priesthood of new/all, yea all, yea all believers are/is established in newness of power, freshness of fire/oil of my appearing and my lamps are trimmed and burning in those who wait for me and receive my flow/word, and yea river it to the simple not, to all, without charge. Freely received, freely given. And who will take care of the financial matters of interest needed? Father.

I love you all.
Goodnight.

16. Establish many schools with this word I do. Watch me.

17. Be not afraid of launching out into the deep with those who know me there: one. I love you entirely, entirety of me, in you; see, surrendered all. I love you.

Goodnight
